

FISK

Non-Skids

—first of all a quality tire in every sense of the word. No tire can be made of better materials.

But the Price is Less on Fisk Non-Skids than on plain tread casings of several other standard makes.

The Fisk Branch Organization is the most widespread in the industry (over 100 direct branches) and the Service Policy is by far the most liberal.

Fisk Tires For Sale By All Dealers

THE FISK RUBBER COMPANY
of N. Y.

General Offices: Chicopee Falls, Mass.

Branches in More Than 100 Cities

Time to Re-tire?
(Buy Fisk)

SOUTH RANDOLPH

Mr. and Mrs. Denison Slack were guests at C. L. MacPhetres' the first of the week.

Mrs. Myra Norris has returned to Williamstown, after visiting relatives here and in New Hampshire.

Clark Hall was here on business the first of the week.

The 14-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rogers died last week Friday at Springfield, Mass., of measles. Much sympathy is felt for the affected parents in the loss of their youngest in the family of two. The funeral was held at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon at the home of D. L. Loomis, and the remains were taken to Randolph Center for burial.

At the C. I. Hood farm auction, May 1, Successful Queen, 278743 was sold for $1,650. This cow is the world's champion Jersey Junior four-year-old, producing 16,389.1 lbs. milk and 1,963.2 lbs. butter. She was bred by J. C. Greene and sold to C. I. Hood of Lowell, Mass., when a two-year-old.

Word was received here Tuesday of the death of John C. Stanley of Livermore, Cal. He leaves a wife and three children and several grandchildren. They went from here to California in 1884. He has had charge of schools for more than 25 years.

SOUTH FAIRLEE

Lillian and Bessie Robinson were visitors at White River Junction last Saturday.

Miss Marjorie Wheatley spent the week end at S. A. George's.

C. S. Rogers has purchased an auto to use on his mail route.

Ernest Rogers and Ernest Ward are cutting pulp for Selah George.

Mr. Lary has moved his mill from the Albee lot to Lebanon, N. H.

Rodney Ware and family of White River Junction and Wesley Avery and family of West Fairlee spent Sunday at C. L. Bragg's.

A. B. Palmer and E. E. Whitcomb were in Montpelier Monday on business.

Business Sense Is Behind

all first-class life insurance, and a study of conditions will convince you. Consult us. National Life Ins. Co. of Vt. (Mutual). S. S. Ballard, general agent, Alto building, Montpelier, Vt.

WATERBURY

John S. Fowler, Former New York Policeman, Died of Heart Disease.

John S. Fowler, who has been seriously ill for some time, passed away Monday night at his home in the library building of myocarditis. He was born in Essex, N. Y., June 28, 1858, the son of James and Amanda Fowler. He was educated in the public schools and for 23½ years served on the police force of New York City, 10 years of that time on the mounted police. Two years ago Mr. and Mrs. Fowler moved here, buying a place on Blush hill. They later moved into the village and after the repairs on the library building were completed moved into rooms there, Mr. Fowler having care of the property. He has made many friends here who sympathize with the widow in this sorrow. He is survived by his widow, who was Miss Laura Palmer of Bristol, and brothers and sisters. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

EAST MONTPELIER

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Arbuckle of East Barre visited his brother on Sunday.

May 4 was "red letter" day for the ladies' aid. Fifteen new members were added to their number. In the near future an entertainment will be given. The committee in charge of the entertainment is Mrs. W. A. LaPoint, Mrs. H. C. Chapple, Mrs. C. M. Hamblin.

The village school opened Monday with 10 scholars in attendance. During the week that school was closed no new cases of scarlet fever were reported.

Walter Curtis and wife of Plainfield are stopping in town with relatives.

Mrs. Henry Batchelder and children of Montpelier are visitors at the home of Chester Batchelder.

A large number from the village attended the George Bedell auction Tuesday.

Rev. Hanna Wilson, who was pastor of the churches in the towns of East Montpelier a short time ago, is now traveling for the Universalist publishing house. He has been calling on his old friends here, who are all glad to meet him.

Nurse—Wouldn't you like to go to heaven, Bobbie, and wear a nice gold crown?

Bobbie—Not if the dentist is going to put it on.—Facts and Fancies.

EAST ORANGE

Miss Myra Eastman, who has been spending the winter with friends in Barre, has returned to her home here to spend the summer.

Mrs. Sadie Hutchinson visited friends in Washington Saturday.

Milo Townner of Chelsea is visiting his niece, Mrs. George Simpson.

J. B. Sanborn, O. A. Prescott, Enos Felch and C. G. Simpson were recent visitors in Barre.

Frank Hutchinson of East Corinth was at his brother's, Clarence Hutchinson, recently.

Mrs. Flora Bohannon was a Barre visitor on the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Burroughs and son, Arthur, visited friends in Corinth Wednesday.

C. E. Hutchinson and Elias Bowen were in Corinth Monday on business and George Simpson and son, Bernard, on Wednesday.

Glenn Hutchinson, Earl Prescott, Herbert Bowen and Jerry Dasher were in Newbury on a fishing trip the last of the week and report a good catch.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Prescott visited at Ed. Cook's in Orange Sunday.

Delbert Hutchinson and friend of Lynde, N. H., visited Mr. and Mrs. Ora Hutchinson Sunday.

Mrs. Belle Johnson and brother, W. M. Prescott were in East Corinth Sunday to attend the funeral of Sabin Di-voll.

Mrs. Lizzie Corcoran was in Waits River Saturday and visited at F. D. Fellows'. Mr. Corcoran met her there and came home from his work at the mines for the week end.

J. A. Dasher was in East Barre the last of the week.

C. E. Hutchinson and Bert Taylor were in East Corinth recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Clark and daughter, Dorothy, have returned to their home here, after spending a part of the winter at her father's, Ed. Cook, in Orange.

Master Arthur Burroughs found two strawberry plants in bloom, May 6, with in a few yards of a snowdrift three and one-half feet deep, in his father's pasture.

WASHINGTON

The Orange Dramatic club will give the drama, "A Daughter of the Desert," at schoolhouse hall Saturday evening, May 13. Admission, 15c and 25c.

BRADFORD

Town Has Lost by Death Capt. P. S. Chamberlain and G. W. Hartwell.

The funeral of Capt. Preston S. Chamberlain, whose death occurred Thursday, April 27, was held at his late home the following Saturday, the house being filled with relatives and friends of the deceased. Rev. A. R. Crewe officiated. Mr. Chamberlain was born in Newbury nearly 84 years ago. He was married to Hannah S. Corliss at Bradford, Jan. 17, 1856. He has lived in Bradford since his marriage and has served the town as lister, selectman and auditor and represented it in the legislature in 1890. He was a veteran of the Civil war. For a number of years he drove the upper plain school team and by his pleasant disposition and kind words endeared himself to the scholars some of whom are now grown up and some are still in school. He leaves a wife and three daughters, Mrs. Annie Spalding, who lives at home, Mrs. G. R. Grant of Bennington, and Miss Edith Chamberlain of Vergennes; two grandchildren and a great-grandchild; also a brother and sister, neither of whom reside here.

George W. Hartwell died Sunday of last week at the home of his step-daughter, Mrs. Warren Crafts. A prayer service was held at the house Monday afternoon. Rev. A. R. Crewe officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Crafts accompanied the body to Lowell on Tuesday, where he was buried beside his wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Corliss of Williamstown were recent guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Shumway. Mr. and Mrs. Corliss are to make their home in Tuxedo, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gould and baby of Boston, are making their home at Mrs. Healey's. Mr. Gould has employment in Springfield's garage.

Conrad Shumway, who has graduated from the Toronto Veterinary college, has returned to his home here.

Principal A. L. Kelling was in White River Junction Saturday.

H. T. Johnson and family were in Woodsville, N. H., Saturday to attend the funeral of a relative.

Bradford academy baseball team went to Newbury Monday afternoon, where they played Newbury high school team, defeating them by a score of 12 to 6.

Ira Parker began work at Stonecliff farm Monday.

Col. Ira Reeves of Norwich university gave a very interesting talk at a joint meeting of the board of trade and the Rifle club at village hall last week Monday evening.

The Nellie Gill Players presented "The Third Degree" at village hall last Thursday evening to a large and appreciative audience.

ORANGE

John Macauley of East Barre has moved to the Spear place, and Raymond Poulton of Barre is moving into James Lord's house at Kimball corner.

Frank Macchia has purchased Oscar Dickey's farm, and Sherman Chamberlain has bought the Farnham place.

Miss Beatrice Davis returned to her home in Portland, Me., last week. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Earl Flanders.

At the regular meeting of the grange last Friday night, several readings were given by Dr. Lynde of Barre, which were much appreciated. There were also solos by Alyce Morse and Amos Lord.

Alyce Morse was elected lecturer of the grange to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the former lecturer.

Miss Lula Thompson of Plainfield was a week end guest at C. W. Emerson's.

Nina Bates of Barre was a recent guest of Mrs. R. E. Beard.

The L. A. S. will give an entertainment at the hall next Friday night, May 12, consisting of tableaux, readings and music. Good music will be furnished for dancing after the program. Ice cream and cake will be on sale. Everyone cordially invited to attend. Admission, adults, 10c; children, 5c. Ladies bringing cake admitted free.

Royal Flanders and family visited his daughter, Mrs. Arthur Carpenter, in Williamstown, Sunday.

V. S. A. NOTES.

W. T. Abell of St. Albans Next Year's Farm Foreman.

Farm Foreman J. C. Kimball completes his services for V. S. A. the first of July. During their stay here, Mr. and Mrs. Kimball have won many friends who will regret to have them leave. The farm manager-elect is W. T. Abell of St. Albans. Mr. Abell graduates from the University of Vermont in June. His training and farm experience have been along the lines calculated to fit him for efficient farm management. Mr. Abell is one of the strong men of the present graduating class at U. V. M. He is a varsity football man, was chairman of the committee which put on this year's successful Kake Walk at the university and is a member of the Honorary Boulder society. Mr. Abell will room at the Maplewood and will have charge of the discipline of the building. V. S. A. extends a hearty welcome to the new farm manager and wishes him success.

The subject for the junior prize debate is, "Resolved, That the United States Should Enter Upon a Policy of Better Preparedness and Compulsory Military Training." The affirmative will be supported by Poor, Trask and Scadin.

The V. S. A. alfalfa plot came through the winter in fine condition. The acreage of this crop will be increased as fast as possible.

Owing to an epidemic of scarlet fever at Kimball Union academy, the baseball game which was to have been played with them last Saturday, was postponed until a later date, the team going instead to Rochester, where they won from the town team there, the third victory of the season. Nine hits were made by the Aggies during the seventh inning. The score at the close of the game stood 10 to 2.

The fourth annual commencement of the Vermont state school of Agriculture will occur the week of June 11-16. The school graduates a class of thirty-nine men this year, which is the second largest class yet turned out. A complete program of commencement week will be printed in a later issue of the Barre Daily Times. The first and second scholarship honors of the class of 1916 go respectively to Cyrus C. Metcalf of Irasburg and Earl C. Merritt of Chester. Mr. Metcalf led his class by a considerable margin and had never been beyond the common school before coming to V. S. A.

BETHEL

Construction Begun on Addition to Tannery Plant.

The Bethel Chrome Tanning Co. begins to-day the construction of a 64-foot addition to its present leather finishing building. The addition, like the present building, will be three stories high. Resident carpenters and other workmen will be employed on the building with C. J. White as foreman.

D. C. Rogers has returned from the Mary Hitchcock hospital at Hanover, N. H., where he had an operation a month ago.

Ide J. Dearing has moved from Mrs. M. A. Cushing's to C. A. Batcheller's.

During a thunder storm last Sunday afternoon a cow belonging to Frank E. Rhoades of Barnard was struck by lightning and killed.

Carpenters finished work yesterday on Roy S. Washburn's new residence.

O. W. Brockway, a prominent farmer living midway between this village and Randolph Center, has eaten no sugar, syrup nor candy since 1832 because at that time sugar caused him a hard toothache.

A two-year-old heifer belonging to Frank O. Roberts last Sunday gave birth to twin bull calves which are a perfect team and he may raise them for a yoke of oxen.

BROOKFIELD

A daughter was born May 7 to Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Stone, nee Ruth Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Ralph of Barre were recent guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Ralph.

Mrs. F. H. Abbott of Barre was an over-Sunday guest of her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Abbott.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fullam and two of their children of Roxbury were guests Thursday of his sister, Mrs. H. M. Jones, and family.

I. N. Abbott recently visited his brother, Prof. W. P. Abbott, and wife in Greenfield, Mass.

Dr. E. E. Ellis accompanied his cousin, C. L. Ellis, to the Mary Fletcher hospital in Burlington Wednesday, where he remained for treatment.

Napoleon Lewis of Hinesburg is visiting his son, C. C. Lewis, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mitchell of Berlin spent one day last week with her father, John F. Heath.

Miss Maria Smith, who spent the winter with her sister, Mrs. Reed, in Randolph, came to her home at the Center Friday.

The regular meetings of the G. A. R. and W. E. C. will be held Saturday afternoon. It is desired that all members be present. Business pertaining to Memorial and Decoration days will be transacted.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. John M. Beard May 5.

George Simmons, while backing his team under his son's shed last Monday, in some way was thrown from his wagon, receiving painful injuries to his shoulders and neck. He was taken into the home of his son, R. H. Simmons, where the accident happened, and still remains there, confined to his bed.

Mr. and Mrs. G. I. Dugan spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Adams, at Randolph Center.

Miss Susan S. Adams, who has been the past year with Mrs. Savilla Greene, went Thursday to stay a while with Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Wood. She would be pleased to have her friends come to see her. She was 88 years old last November. She retains her mental faculties wonderfully well.

Hiram Curnutt, who spent the winter with relatives in New Hampshire, arrived home Friday.

The board of civil authority will meet Saturday evening, May 13, at 7 o'clock, to revise the checklist.

Twelve were present at the annual home missionary meeting, which was held with Mrs. F. L. Fullam Tuesday. The following officers were elected for the year ensuing: President, Mrs. Inez Whittier; vice president, Mrs. Sarah Fullam; treasurer, Mrs. Abbie Yaw; secretary, Mrs. Sophia E. Follansbee; executive committee, Mrs. S. E. Follansbee, Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor, Mrs. Emma Ditty. The society has enjoyed a very prosperous year. The name of Mrs. Maria M.

Don't Paint With Mud!

What is in paint is as important as how paint is put on. The best painter in the land cannot make worthless mixtures of crushed rock and ground earths stay put. Imitation paint lacks the clinching qualities and elasticity that paint made of

Dutch Boy ATLANTIC White Lead

and pure linseed oil possesses. It is most durable, beautiful and economical, whether used on interior or exterior surfaces.

Write us for further information.

National Lead Company
111 Broadway
New York, N. Y.

GROTON

Mrs. Walter Scruton visited relatives at Piermont, N. H., Saturday.

M. E. Beckley has moved his family from the house he recently sold to S. P. Welch, to the house of Ed. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gale of Battle Creek, Mich., arrived in town Saturday and are passing the week with relatives and friends. Mr. Gale was called East three weeks ago by the illness and subsequent death of his father, John N. Gale of St. Johnsbury. Mrs. Gale was formerly Miss Emily Corey of Groton.

Mrs. Wheeler Batchelder of Plainfield, who passed several days in this vicinity last week, returned to her home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Thayer and children of Woodsville, N. H., were the guests of Mrs. Maribah Taylor over Sunday. Mr. Thayer is manager of the Woodsville News.

Miss Jennie Meader, who is visiting friends in Ryegate, was taken very ill on Sunday, threatened with pneumonia, but is better at this writing.

Alex Burnett was in town Saturday and shipped his household goods to Barre, where they go to reside.

Mrs. Walter Green and daughters, Beatrice and Virginia, returned to their home at Coventry, R. I., Wednesday, after a ten days' visit with relatives at this place.

The horses of G. L. McLam of Topsham got frightened near the depot Friday afternoon and escaped the driver, who was off the wagon, and made a lively dash for home. They were stopped a short distance on the Topsham road; the only damage done was to the wagon, which was repaired with a few hours' delay so that the return trip was made.

RANDOLPH

Miss Mary Moulton, Mrs. Arthur Lane and Mrs. Justin Moulton came from Mount Vernon, N. Y., on Tuesday night.

"ATTENTION FELLER CHICKENS!"

If your commissary department supplies you with Park & Pollard BABY BUSTER CHICK FEED

you will never be in the hospital. Never any sickness and everybody happy. The fish it contains makes a great relish.

BUY IT OF YOUR FEED DEALER

The Reliance Silo

Built of the very best of material. Made of Florida Pine of the long leaf variety, which does not shrink as much as ordinary lumber.

Strong and Durable

You will find the Reliance Silo very easy to erect.

Silo Doors and Frames are bolted solidly; we do not depend on nails or spikes to hold the parts in place.

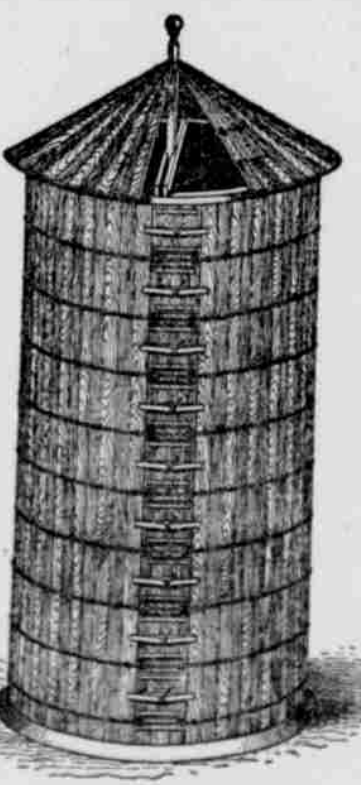

NOW IS THE TIME TO LOOK THIS UP

Send for Catalog No. 13D

Write us or see C. E. Seares, our general agent at Barre, or J. L. Arkley, Barre.

Brackett, Shaw & Lunt Co.
65 North Washington Street
Boston

Headquarters for Gasoline Engines for All Purposes
SOMERSWORTH, N. H.

BLOTCHES BURNED TERRIBLY ON FACE

Rubbed and Made Itching More Painful. Constantly Irritated. Face Was Badly Disfigured.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"My skin trouble began six months ago. At that time I had only a few pimples on my face and forehead. They were in blotches on my face and they itched and burned terribly and at times I rubbed my face but this made the itching more painful. The pimples on my forehead were disfiguring and they were constantly irritated. For two months my face was badly disfigured."

"I sent for a sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and after using it I bought a cake of Soap and a box of Ointment. In less than two months after I used two cakes of Soap and two boxes of Ointment I was healed." (Signed) David H. Schuminsky, 17 Bedford St., Hartford, Conn., Oct. 20, '15.

Sample Each Free by Mail
With 20-p. Skin Book on request. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston." Sold throughout the world.

BELL-ANS

Absolutely Removes Indigestion. One package proves it. 25c at all druggists.

PERRY & NOONAN
UNEXCELLED FUNERAL FURNISHINGS
Hospital Ambulance Service
UNDERTAKERS AND LICENSED EMBALMERS
Telephone Connection—425-1

DEPOT SQ. BARRE